STAFF REPORT

Renee Mezo, Assistant Deputy Director of the Development Services Department welcomed everyone back and informed the Board that this new location (San Diego City College 1046 16th Street, San Diego, CA 92101- Mathematics & Social Sciences Building) will be the location that we will be having 2023 calendar year monthly Historical Resources Board (HRB) meetings. Also, she reminded the board that come February 2023 all boardmembers must be present in the HRB meetings. The boardmembers have a choice to use Just Cause and use this two times a year per boardmember if needed. More information will come via the City Attorney.

Shannon Anthony, Senior Planner of the Development Services Department reported out for 2022 the City received a total of 145 Mills Act applications and processed 140 agreements which were recorded at the end of last year. 2023 Mills Acts applications are currently being accepted during the open application period of January 1st and will end on March 31st. To be eligible to apply the property must be historically designated on the local register by December 31st of the prior year. New in 2023, applications are now accepted digitally through our online Accela portal.

Suzanne Segur, Senior Planner of the Development Services Department reported that two site development permits for historical resources were approved unanimously by the Planning Commission in December and those are for the Andrew Cassidy Home, HRB #283 currently located at 1620 Union Street and the LGBTQ Community/ Albert Bell Building, HRB #1453 located 3780 Fifth Avenue. Currently under construction is the site development permit for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company Garage, HRB #1355 located at 660 10th Avenue. The other project is the Balboa Park Botanical Building restoration which will restore the building to its original 1915 appearance with some small modifications. The project is scheduled to be completed in the spring of 2024.

Bernie Turgeon, Senior Planner of the Planning Department reported a few announcements; the historic resource component of the Mira Mesa Community Plan update was approved as part of the new community plan by City Council in December. Lastly, the Bungalow Courts and Apartment Courts Historic Context Statement is now posted to the Planning Department’s website along with Deputy Director Kelly Stanco’s cover memo.
