2023 YEAR IN REVIEW

A Message From Councilmember Raul Campillo

Dear Neighbor,

Thank you all for your feedback, participation, ideas, hard work, and dedication to your communities. As your Councilmember, I work hard every day to make sure you are being represented honestly at City Hall.

Together, we have had a very successful year improving District 7 roads and infrastructure; expanding access to quality and affordable childcare; providing our public safety departments with the tools needed to keep San Diegans safe; creating good paying jobs; uplifting working families; and fighting extremist hate.

As we head into 2024, I am thankful to have the support of my wife, Nadia, who gave birth to our baby boy, Rafael, in October. As a family, we care deeply about San Diego and giving back to our community. I look forward to continuing to serve you. Please don't ever hesitate to reach out to me directly or a member of my staff should you ever need our assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Raul A. Campillo". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Parks, Libraries, and Roads

Kelly Street Neighborhood Park

In March, the Linda Vista Community Recreation Council voted in support of one of the proposed design alternatives for Kelly Park. The project is now undergoing environmental review, and City staff is preparing to bring the updated plans to the full Park & Recreation Board in spring of 2024. I have requested design funding for this project in the upcoming fiscal year.

Alvarado Canyon Rd Realignment

In April, the City's consultant provided an update to the Navajo Planning Group on the planning phase of this project. At this time, feasible design alternatives have been narrowed down to include different variations of realigning Alvarado Canyon Rd to the intersection of Mission Gorge Rd/Fairmount Ave. The environmental review will be completed in spring 2024, and will then move into the design phase, which is fully funded.

San Carlos Library

In August, Mayor Gloria, Congresswoman Jacobs and over 100 members of the community joined me in celebrating the historic step of buying the lot next to the current library. Partial design will be finalized by the end of 2023, and the City is planning to put the design/construction contract out to bid in 2024. A large funding gap persists, and with the help of $5 million allocated through Navajo-collected developer fees, the City is pursuing state and federal grant funding to move this project into the next phase.

Allied Gardens Off-Leash Dog Park

Earlier this year, the City's Park & Recreation Board unanimously approved the design of my proposed off-leash dog park, and I worked to fund this project in this year's budget. The City's fencing contractor started work on December 8, and City crews will now coordinate to install a concrete walkway, entry patio, logs and site furnishings, as well as retrofitting the irrigation system. We are expecting to open this up to the community in early 2024.

Ruffin Canyon Trail

In 2023, the Ruffin Canyon Trail, linking Serra Mesa to Mission Valley, moved toward completion. This year, my staff focused on working with the San Diego Mountain Biking Association, the Escala HOA, and others to cut through red tape and get this project closer to the finish line. During the last Council meeting of the year, I cast my vote to allocate the final $150,000 for the Ruffin Trail construction. Now that the easement and funding are in place, residents of Serra Mesa and Mission Valley will soon have a completed trail to enjoy in fall 2024.

IN THE COMMUNITY Allied Gardens

KEY EVENTS

March 9, 2023: It was my pleasure to present a proclamation declaring March 9th, 2023 "Gary Blume Total Altruism Project Day" in the City of San Diego. Gary was the architect behind a trash picker upper program at the Allied Gardens Rec Center. See top left.

March 14, 2023: I was proud to host a bulk trash drop off event for Allied Gardens residents. See middle left.

December 2023: After many months of advocacy, we broke ground on the new dog park! The dog park, located next to the Allied Gardens Pool, will be the first ever dog park in District 7. More info on page 7. See bottom left.

LOOKING AHEAD

Keep an eye out for a new public works project in Allied Gardens, the Improv 3 project. This project will be upgrading the water and sewer infrastructure in Allied Gardens as well as putting in curb ramps and resurfacing streets. Construction work is anticipated to begin in the summer of 2024 and take approximately 18 months. Waring Road, College Avenue, Navajo Road, and the surrounding streets will all be affected by construction.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Del Cerro

KEY EVENTS

July 6, 2023: I joined SDFD staff to do a tour of Del Cerro Open Space and discuss fire prevention and abatement. I asked them to ensure that we are doing everything possible to promote fire safety. See top right.

September 7, 2023: In the wake of several rounds of anti-Semitic flyering incidents in Del Cerro and other communities, I invited Jewish community leaders, anti-hate activists, and first responders to join me in calling for harsher penalties for hateful flyering. See middle right.

LOOKING AHEAD

Since taking office, I have advocated on behalf of District 7 residents for more work to be done on our roads. Good news: College Avenue will receive an asphalt overlay! Keep an eye out for this project to begin in summer 2024.

IN THE COMMUNITY Grantville

KEY EVENTS

August 11, 2023: I was on hand to celebrate the grand opening of the Union Grantville housing development at the Grantville Transit Center. The housing complex has 250 units and houses more than 600 residents, mostly SDSU students. See top left.

October 17, 2023: In August, following my office's outreach to City staff, a curb cut was completed at Kaiser Vandever. A nurse contacted us in October to follow up and let us know how meaningful our work was to her and her patients. See middle left.

LOOKING AHEAD

In early 2024, the transit-focused ShoreLINE affordable housing project will open its doors to future residents. The five-story development next to the trolley will include over 120 apartment units, offer onsite after-school programs, and broader, skills and career-building programs. See bottom left.

Hi Anthony,
Wanted to let you know how much I appreciate your follow through with this project! I see patients coming into our clinic every day, who need to come down the street from Mission Gorge, down Vandever, using a walker or scooter, and need to navigate the sidewalk.

Thanks to you they don't need to go out into the street – around parked cars, to get to their appointments.

I am extremely grateful!

-- Christine, RN at Kaiser Permanente Vandever

IN THE COMMUNITY

Linda Vista

KEY EVENTS

April 29, 2023: I was proud to declare April 29th

November 15, 2023: I partnered with the Carpenters Union and Bayside Community Center to give low-income Linda Vistans turkey, pie, and fresh produce for Thanksgiving. See middle right.

December 16, 2023: Linda Vista Community Garden will be the first community garden in a City of San Diego park. I was honored to attend its groundbreaking. See bottom right.

LOOKING AHEAD

An updated plan for John Baca Park was approved by the City’s Park & Recreation Board in mid-2021, and this year I was able to secure the funding needed to move the project into the next phase. During 2024, this project will undergo design and final review, which once completed makes it a great candidate for grant funding to finally upgrade the park in 2025 and beyond.

IN THE COMMUNITY Mission Valley

KEY EVENTS

April 27, 2023: I joined Global Gals, a women's group, at a Mission Valley resident's home to talk about District 7 issues. See top left.

September 6, 2023: Though the Riverwalk Project, which I have championed, is no longer in my District post-redistricting, my staff and I toured the development to learn about the progress being made on the project. We learned about the incredible amenities, pedestrian-friendly infrastructure, and housing that Riverwalk will bring to Mission Valley. See middle left.

September 21, 2023: I joined the San Diego River Park Foundation, whose mission includes protecting and enhancing the San Diego River, for its 22nd Anniversary event. See bottom left.

LOOKING AHEAD

Keep an eye out for more updates on the Enhanced Infrastructure Financing District (EIFD), which the City and County are partnering on to complete the San Diego River Park Trail. This will bring us closer to making the San Diego River a cultural and recreational hub in our region.

IN THE COMMUNITY

San Carlos

KEY EVENTS

February 11, 2023: As a former little leaguer and an avid baseball fan, I was proud to attend the San Carlos Little League Opening day to present the board with a proclamation from the City of San Diego proclaiming Saturday, February 11, 2023 San Carlos Little League Day in the City of San Diego. See top right.

April 15, 2023: I was on hand for the San Carlos Library's second annual robotics showcase extravaganza, where students from across San Diego showcased the robots they and their classmates created. See middle right.

August 5, 2023: We Bought the Lot for a new San Carlos Library! Hundreds of community members came out to celebrate the momentous occasion. See bottom right.

LOOKING AHEAD

It is finally happening: Navajo Road between Camino Estrellado and Park Ridge Blvd will begin repaving in January 2024. I've advocated for this street to be repaved since day one in office. To ensure the longevity of this key District 7 corridor, the treatment will be full overlay.

IN THE COMMUNITY Serra Mesa

KEY EVENTS

April 22, 2023: I joined I Love a Clean San Diego and the Friends of Ruffin Canyon to help keep our City clean and officially proclaim April 22nd as "21st Annual Creek to Bay Clean Up Day." See top left.

June 5, 2023: I was on hand for the field dedication and ribbon cutting ceremony at the new Taft Middle School joint use field! This field is a game-changer for our community as it offers a wide range of activities for residents of all ages. See middle top left and middle bottom left.

September 16, 2023: Mayor Gloria and I were proud to join Serra Mesans to celebrate 92123 Day (a few days early). See bottom left.

LOOKING AHEAD

Now that the easement and funding are in place for Ruffin Trail, residents of Serra Mesa and Mission Valley will soon have a completed trail to enjoy once crews complete construction in fall 2024.

IN THE COMMUNITY Tierrasanta

KEY EVENTS

May 20, 2023: I marched in the Tierrasanta Kiwanis Patriot Day Parade. It was great to see so many friends and neighbors. See top right.

May 24, 2023: I hosted a Fire Safety Town Hall in Tierrasanta alongside San Diego Fire Department personnel in order to ensure residents were ready for the upcoming fire season. See top middle right.

November 18, 2023: My office hosted a Tierrasanta Bulk Trash drop off event. We filled up five forty-yard dumpsters all the way to the brim. More than 100 residents showed up to take advantage. See bottom middle right and bottom right.

LOOKING AHEAD

I am pleased to announce that the children's play structure at Villa Norte Park is scheduled for replacement in early 2024. The new play structure will promote recreational opportunities for Tierrasanta residents. I look forward to the positive impact this will bring to local families.

Driving Policy

Why I Voted for the Unsafe Camping Ordinance

One of the most notable actions the City Council took this year was the passage of the Unsafe Camping Ordinance, which prohibits encampments at all times within two blocks of certain sensitive areas, like schools, parks, and transit stations, and prohibits camping on city streets if appropriate shelter for an individual is available. I voted for the Unsafe Camping Ordinance because the status quo that has existed in San Diego for years is a public health and safety risk. The situation on our streets is unacceptable, and we must take swift action. So far, the Ordinance has been a success. I will continue to fight for more shelter space, affordable housing, and fully staffing our first responders and mental health providers to help us combat homelessness.

Karla Diaz carries Claire Fisher, 2, as she and the other children dance during "Circle Time" at Diaz's Chula Vista home, where she runs a child care operation. She said she had experienced pushback from another landlord about running her business.

MEASURE A REMINDER OF CHILD CARE PROTECTIONS

Some in-home providers report discrimination by landlords; now leases must note law

BY KRISTEN TAKETA
LUCIA SERRANO

For three years, Karla Diaz ran a small child care business out of a ree-bedroom home she was renting in South Bay. Then one day in 2020, she said, a landlord stopped by and told her to get out. The landlord said he had never given Diaz permission to run a child care. Diaz said, "After Diaz learned she was being evicted, she called landlords of about 15 more homes to find a new place to live and run her business. When she told them she wanted to use the home for child care, they told her no."

After about a month of searching, Diaz said, she found a home in Chula Vista whose owner allowed her to continue her child care business — but she was charged an additional security deposit. "I imagine there are more people like me — people who are looking for a place to offer their service and get denied because landlords are scared," Diaz said in an interview in Spanish. Even though state law prohibits it, such housing discrimination against small child care owners like Diaz has persisted. So the San Diego City Council passed a new measure last week that will require landlords to include a notice of this state law's protections in all lease agreements.

"We know that many family child care operators in San Diego County have faced and continue to face hardships in trying to operate these services in their rented home, despite the fact that state law granted them these rights," said Justine Murray, deputy chief of staff for Councilmember Raul Campillo, who spearheaded the measure. Family child care providers are licensed small business owners who run services out of their own homes. They are a crucial part of the child care economy, especially since they are more likely than larger centers to offer nontraditional hours and to speak languages other than English. There are about 3,200 family child care providers in San Diego County, according to a 2022 University of San Diego report. About 1,400 are in the city proper. Some family child care providers have been evicted or denied rental housing because landlords don't want their properties used for a child care business. Landlords may worry about potential noise or property damage from having several children in a home, experts say.

Standing Up for San Diego Families: Access to Quality and Affordable Childcare

It's far too expensive and difficult to get high-quality childcare in San Diego, and since being elected to the Council, I have prioritized improving access to quality and affordable childcare for San Diegans and working families. This year, I fought for and won a doubling of parental leave from 4 weeks to 8 weeks for the over 12,000 City of San Diego employees. We also made it easier to access those benefits. Additionally, I passed a policy at Council that ensures that in every rental agreement in San Diego, tenants know that they have the right to operate a family childcare facility out of their home. Finally, this year we opened a childcare facility for SDPD officers so that more people can join the police force and help fully staff our police department.

Fighting Hate in Our Communities

Let me be clear: hate is absolutely unacceptable in San Diego. In response to the multiple anti-Semitic and anti-LGBTQ+ hate-flying incidents that have occurred in District 7, I am working on a new law that will increase the penalty for littering that threatens, harasses, and instigates violence. In collaboration with civil rights leaders, I'm also bringing forth a policy to improve our city's hate incident and hate crime reporting system that will also connect people targeted for hate with legal resources and community support. Look for more updates in early 2024. I am committed to making San Diego a safer and more inclusive place for all; I refuse to sit back and do nothing to stop the hate we're seeing.

FY24 Budget Wins

Each July, the budget is adopted for the upcoming year. Here are just a few of the major items in the FY24 budget that I helped secure:

$5 million for the San Carlos Library

$1.5 million for John Baca Park

- $138 million for Street Paving
- $1.5 million to fix the City's most dangerous intersections
- $500,000 for traffic calming
- 509 acres of brush maintenance
- 45 additional public safety positions

- $250,000 for Library materials
- Key positions added for Get it Done support, sidewalk ramping, litter abatement, water billing customer service, and more
- $225,000 to recruit more police officers

$2 million for West Valley Crossing, to connect Sefton Field and the Mission Valley YMCA

Smart Streetlights: Keeping San Diegans Safe

Smart Streetlights are a crucial element in enhancing the safety of San Diego by addressing the prevalent threats from drug and human traffickers that have inflicted considerable harm on our community. Today's criminals are not only more determined, but also more sophisticated than ever. To confront these evolving challenges and promote safety and justice, we must employ the latest technology. The Smart Streetlights Ordinance empowers law enforcement to use technology in apprehending criminals and delivering justice for crimes that have occurred. This approach contributes to a safer and more secure community, and I was proud to support our law enforcement with my vote in support of this technology.

Leading on Behavioral Health

San Diego is facing an unacceptable Behavioral Health Bed Crisis. Improving this situation will decrease levels of homelessness, reduce hospital wait times, ease pressures on our first responders, and most importantly, provide San Diegans with the proper care they need. Though health and human services fall under the responsibility of the County government, I am working with the Mayor's office to ensure City policies support providing more facilities and I am prepared to put pressure on other levels of government to properly support and coordinate their behavioral health resources. First step: Prop 1, Governor Newsom's March 2024 Ballot Measure that could help build more than 11,000 beds and nearly 27,000 treatment slots within the state. If passed, I will be pushing for San Diego to be prioritized.

Safer Streets

Upgrading our street infrastructure has been one of my top priorities since I was elected. I work hard to get your streets repaved because I know how frustrating it is to drive on bumpy streets. This year, my staff and I have been successful in repaving many of the roads that needed help the most.

I've also focused on making our roads safer. It is my firm belief that all who use the road should be safe from harm. That's why I have fought hard for more Class IV (protected) bike lanes all across District 7 and San Diego. My City Council colleagues and I passed the Complete Streets policy, which prioritizes bike infrastructure improvements and traffic calming measures.

In 2024, I'll continue to fight to ensure that District 7 roads are prioritized for improvements and repaving.

Left: Village Glen Drive in Serra Mesa. Right: Councilmember Campillo working with city staff to install stop sign on Madra Ave in Del Cerro.

53.4 miles

of District 7's total 344.1 miles of road are scheduled to receive either a slurry seal or be repaved in FY24 (7/1/23 to 6/30/24)

300% more roads paved

In FY24 as compared to the past five fiscal years in District 7; whereas the annual average has been 4%, in FY24 16% of D7 roads will be repaved

Looking Ahead

I'm excited to announce two new programs I'll adopt in 2024 to connect with folks like you!

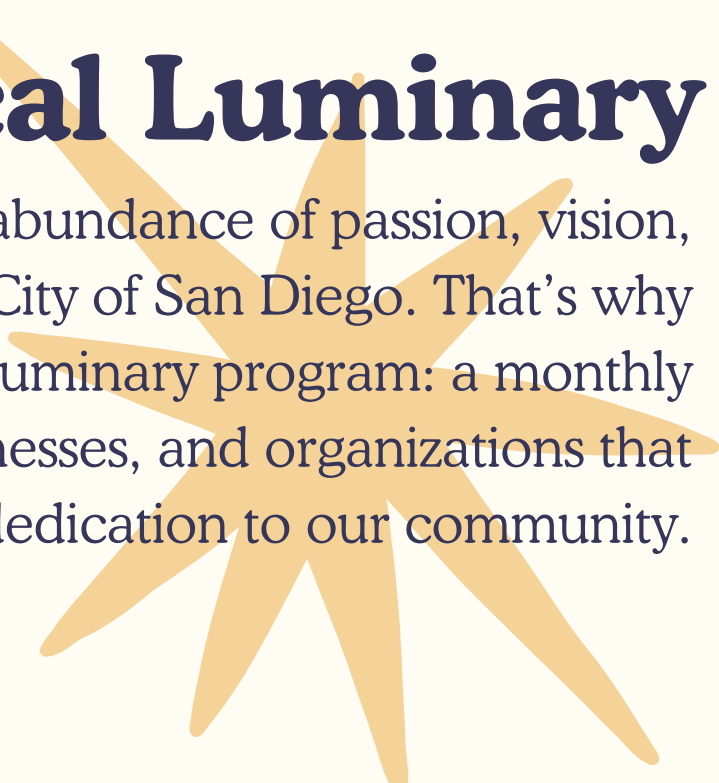

Coffee with Campillo

Join me and members of my staff for some good coffee and even better conversation on Saturdays, every other month, in 2024.

Tentative months are February, April, June, August, and October. More details to come.

Local Luminary

I am always astounded by the abundance of passion, vision, and community service in the City of San Diego. That's why I'm introducing my Local Luminary program: a monthly spotlight on our neighbors, businesses, and organizations that display exemplary dedication to our community.
