San Diego Police Arrest Linda Vista Sexual Assault and Burglary Suspect

San Diego – The San Diego Police Department has arrested a 22-year-old man for sexual assault and burglary that occurred at a Linda Vista home last week.

On April 18, 2024, at about 1:45 a.m., the suspect entered a home located in the 2800 block of Wellington St. and sexually assaulted a 5-year-old girl.

On April 21, 2024, at about 3:25 a.m., the suspect was seen on video surveillance footage returning to the same home and entering the property. He did not gain entry into the main residence, and no one was harmed.

On April 21, 2024, at about 11:15 p.m., SDPD officers contacted a man matching the suspect description who was drinking a beer in the 6700 block of Linda Vista Rd. Alejandro Jose Confesor was arrested for lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14 with force, sex crime with specific circumstances, assault with intent to commit rape or other sex acts during residential burglary, burglary, and trespassing.

Anyone with further information regarding these incidents or video surveillance from the area during the time of the incidents is encouraged to call SDPD's Child Abuse Unit at (619) 531-2210.
