

ELECTION NOTICE

Rancho Peñasquitos Planning Board - March 3, 2021

4:30pm – 7:30pm Penasquitos Library at 13330 Salmon River Rd, San Diego, CA 92129

(Covid-19 restrictions require this to be held outside, near the front entrance)

All persons wishing to vote in the Planning Board election must be at least 18 years of age and must have resided within the district or at-large seat boundaries for which they are voting for the thirty (30) days prior to the election to be eligible. Each voter will cast a single ballot. The Election is conducted by secret ballot and identification with current address is required; write-in candidates and proxy voting are NOT allowed.

Rancho Peñasquitos Candidates –

District 1 – Brian Reschke

District 3 – No Candidate

District 5 – Randy Steffler (Incumbent)

District 7 – No Candidate

District 9 – No Candidate

District 11 – Jon Becker (Incumbent, 8+ years served, 2/3 vote required)

Black Mtn. Ranch Candidate –

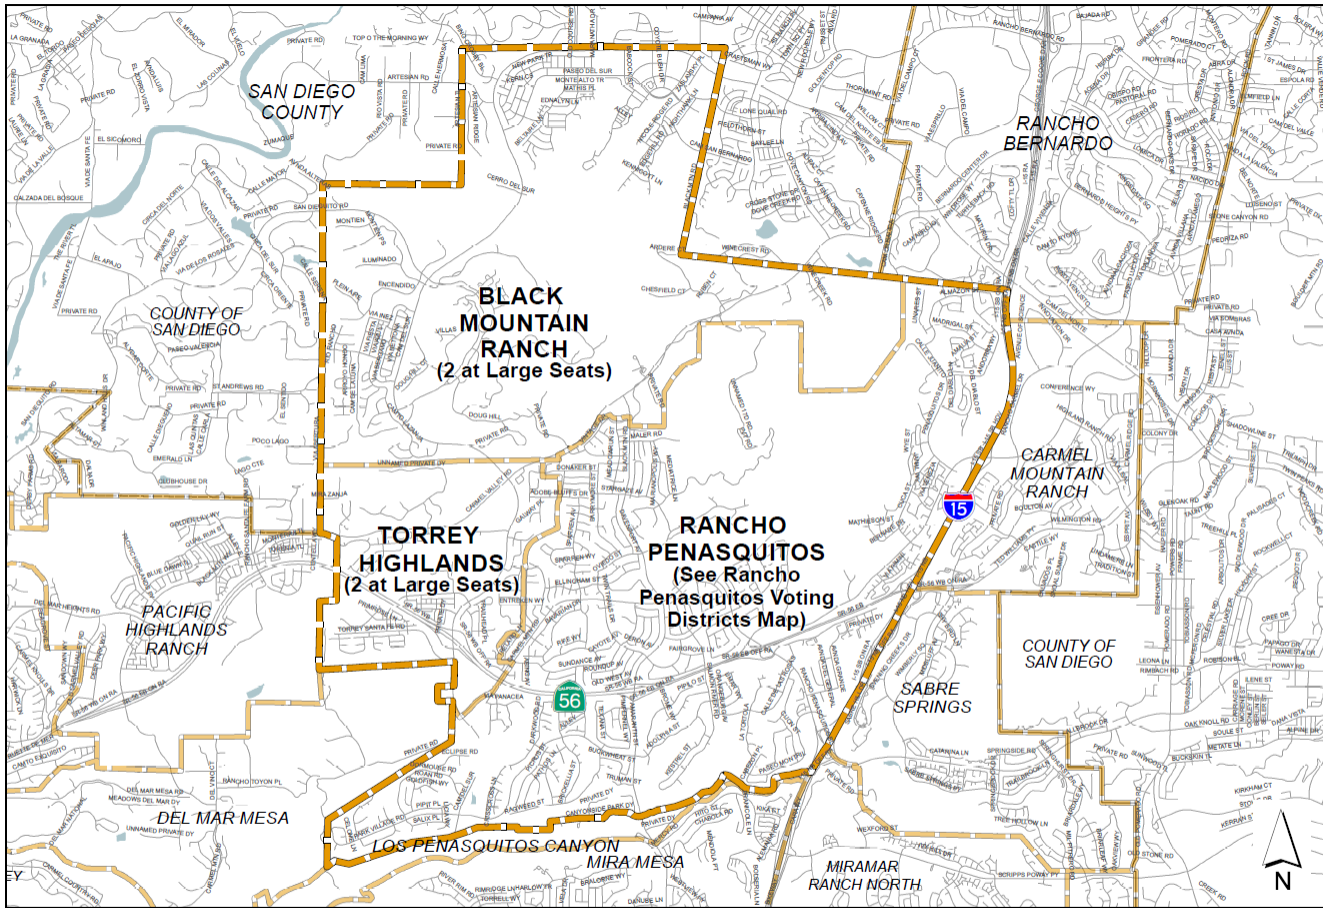

At-Large Seat #1 – Kenneth Heinz

Torrey Highlands Candidate –

At-Large Seat #1 – Sabrina Leitner (Incumbent)

Members of the Rancho Peñasquitos Planning Board shall be elected to serve for a fixed term of two years. Election results will be reported during the March 2021 regularly scheduled meeting. Any challenge to the election results must be filed with the chairperson of the Elections Ad Hoc Committee or an officer of the Rancho Peñasquitos Planning Board in writing within 24 hours of the counting of the ballots in order to allow enough time to resolve the issue. Any challenge and the basis upon which it was resolved shall be reported prior to the ratification of the election results at the April regular meeting.

Questions: Stephen Egbert, Election Ad Hoc Committee Chair at segbert1@san.rr.com

Document Path: L:\GIS\PG&E\Community Planning\Rancho Penasquitos\CPA_PROJECTS\Bdy_BoundaryMap_041111.mxd

Exhibit A: Boundary Map - Rancho Penasquitos Planning Board Area

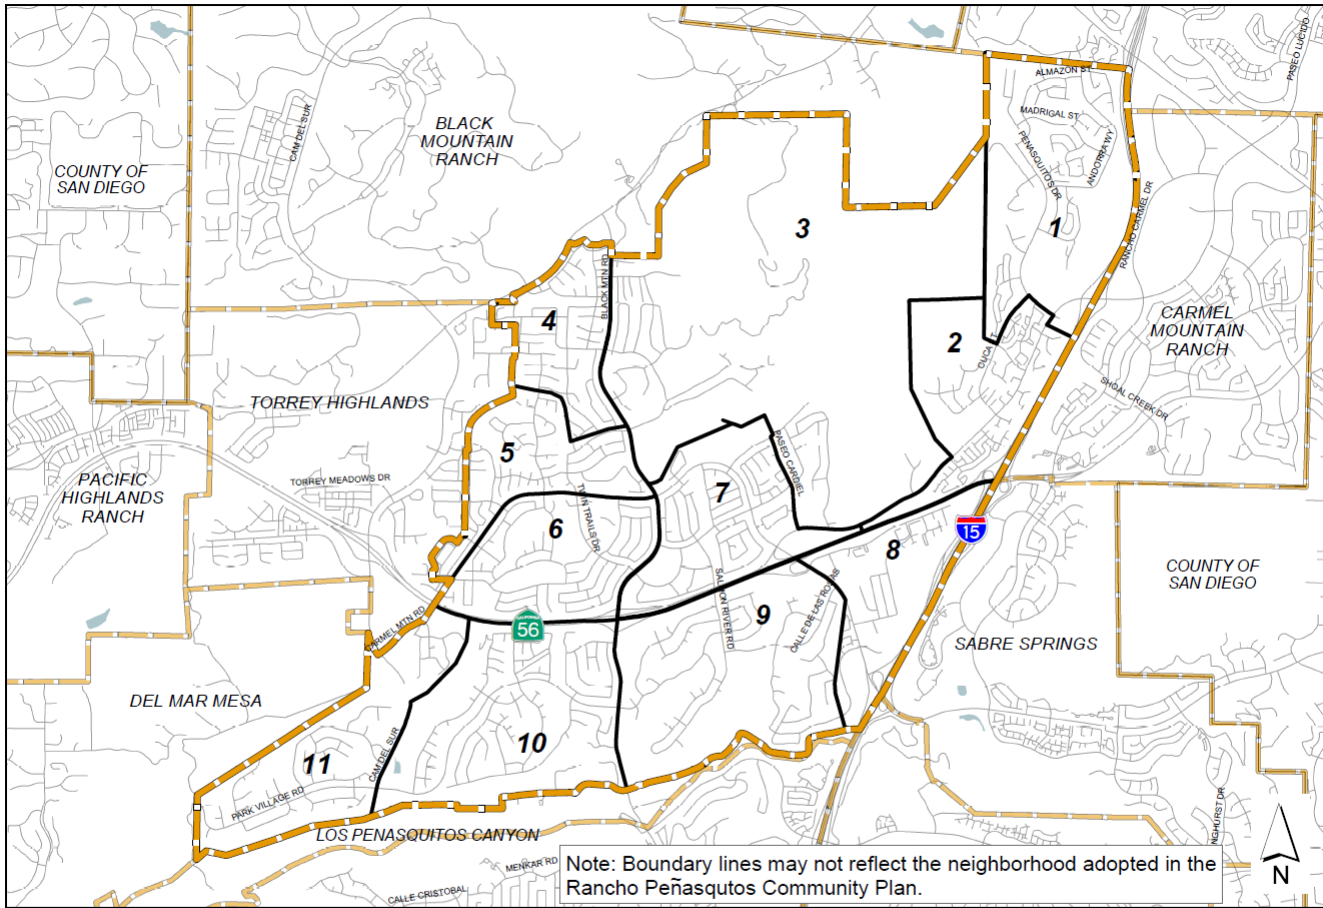

Exhibit A: Rancho Peñasquitos Voting Districts